SDG 3.3.3 — "Does your university as a body share sports facilities with the local community, for instance with local schools or with the general public?"

Yes University as a body share sports facilities with the local community, for instance with local school or the general public

GD Goenka University is deeply committed to fostering health, fitness, and community engagement by making its world-class sports facilities accessible to the local community, including schools and the general public. Yes, GD Goenka University actively shares its sports facilities with the local community, including local schools and the general public. The University promotes inclusive access to physical fitness and recreational opportunities as part of its commitment to community well-being and holistic development. To enhance accessibility and community engagement, the University has also partnered with Hudle, a widely used sports engagement platform. Through this partnership, community members can conveniently book and use the facilities, ensuring transparent, inclusive, and equitable access.

Details of facilities for cultural and sports activities such as yoga centre, games (indoor and outdoor) gymnasium, auditorium, swimming pool, shooting range etc.

The G.D. Goenka University is committed to enhancing student's overall growth by providing facilities for sports events, cultural activities, and co-curricular activities. They host the annual sports extravaganza, SPORTOPIA, which welcomes students from other colleges and institutes, infusing competition with a dose of physical and mental excitement. Students enthusiastically participate in a wide range of sports activities, promoting sportsmanship. The university offers facilities for cricket, soccer, volleyball, basketball, lawn tennis, kabaddi, as well as indoor activities like squash, table tennis, and pool swimming. Additionally, students can access a half-Olympic size swimming pool, a well-equipped gym, and squash courts in the modern fitness center to enhance their physical strength.

The university's annual techno-cultural fest, ACCELERON, fosters the campus's cultural atmosphere with diverse events and competitions that engage students' scientific and artistic talents. Cultural events such as Udyami Bazaar encourage entrepreneurship among students by providing a platform for showcasing innovative business ideas and ventures. The Board of Student Activities (BSA) comprises student representatives who organize various cultural activities, including music, dance, theatre, debates, and discussions, contributing to the holistic growth of students.
