The University has the best of facilities, equipment including laboratories, dedicated video conference facilities, virtual learning facilities and fully equipped conference rooms. These are all designed to extract the best and most creative qualities from the students. To afford quality education to students, which are along the lines of best of international standards, the University follows an interdisciplinary approach to education whereby students are encouraged to learn subjects from various disciplines at GDGU. A global connection via a truly international educational institution. SCHOOL OF LAW, GD GOENKA UNIVERSITY offers Law Degree Programs at Undergraduate, Post Graduate and Doctoral levels and strives to open new vistas in the arena of law through clinical legal studies and research. With an objective to raise the standards of clinical legal education in India, the GD Goenka University, School of Law regularly hosts Moot Court Competitions and encourages law students from various Law Schools and Universities from across India and world to learn the art and skills of advocacy.

CYBERLAW UNIVERSITY While there has been some effort done to create more awareness about Cyber law through different initiatives, it was felt that there is a distinct need for an online University that is dedicated specifically and exclusively to all the legal issues pertaining to cyberspace and the Internet. Herein lay the genesis of the origin of the idea of the Cyber law University. Cyber law University, as the name suggests, would be a unique university dedicated exclusively to Cyber law and related disciplines. As Cyber law is the law pertaining to cyberspace and the Internet, it is only in the fitness of things that Cyber law University operates in cyberspace as an online University. Cyber law University is in touch with various universities and we are in the process of forming 4 professional relationships with different academic institutions and universities. In the times to come, the goal of Cyber law University is to become one common central point for not just the growth of Cyber law jurisprudence across the world but also for disseminating knowledge about the constantly changing cyber legal trends impacting the use of computers, computer systems, computer networks, communication devices as also data and information in the electronic form. Given the ever-evolving nature of the Internet, legal issues of cyberspace have developed rapidly.

ABOUT THE COMPETITION

With an objective to raise the standards of Clinical Legal Education in India, the GD Goenka University, School of Law announces 3 rd GDGU International Virtual law and technology Moot Court Competition, 2021 in association with Cyber Law University, on 17 th & 18 th September, 2022. Moot Court Competitions, which is a mandatory part of law curriculum in our law school, offers a practical and application-based approach to learning of law. It gives the law students the necessary free space to interpret and analyse legal provisions in the context of a given legal regime, while trying to solve a practical problem. The GDGU School of Law is dedicated to promote this aspect of legal training for ensuring a wholesome legal education and the GD Goenka Virtual moot Competition is an endeavour of the School of Law in this direction. 3 rd GDGU International Virtual Law and Technology Moot Court Competition, 2022 in association with Cyber Law University is about technology law. Technology law focuses on intellectual property rights, a complex branch of the legal system that deals with disputes over who 'owns' intangible 'property', such as creative works, patents, copyrights, and trade secrets. Technology law helps to protect the creatives who come up with these ideas and also ensures rights concerning the distribution of their work. The 3rd GD Goenka International Virtual Law and Technology Moot Court Competition, 2022 in association with Cyber Law University is expected to have participations from various Law Schools and Universities from across India & abroad. More details about the Competition are available on an exclusive website made just for this purpose – www.gdgoenkamootcourt.com
