Contribution to Local Arts: Public Performances

THE question: Does the University as a body contribute to local arts, in terms of the number of annual public performances of university choirs, theatre groups, orchestras etc.?

Yes. In the year the University's student clubs staged or took part in 34 public arts events: 22 live music, dance, theatre, puppetry, storytelling and runway performances, on campus and at other universities, and 12 public exhibitions and arts competitions. Each is listed once below with its public evidence.
