WHY THIS THEME

Convergence of Innovation reflects how digital health, diagnostics, biomaterials, AI-enabled drug discovery, and public health policy are increasingly intersecting. The theme invites participants to showcase ideas that bridge disciplines and translate research into real-world impact for patients and healthcare systems. Healthcare innovation requires collaboration among doctors, pharmacists, physiotherapists, nurses, optometrists, cardiologists, radiologists, researchers, engineers, entrepreneurs, data scientists, designers, industry leaders, and policymakers. HealthTech Idea 2.0 provides a platform for these diverse perspectives to work together.
